GOD HAS THE BEST FORCASTER POSSIBLE

Growing up in the Midwest—March was always a swing month weather-wise. It was a common occurrence to have such bad March weather that we adopted the old New England saying, “March is coming in like a lion and it will go out like a lamb” or if it was temperate to start March then, “March is coming in like a lamb and going out like a lion.”

When my family moved to Southern Indiana, March basketball playoffs at regional, sectional, and state level were affected by the weather, but people still made it to the games. More than one farmer I knew plowed his lane out with his own snowplow blade and tractor just so the family could get to the basketball tournament. The families with tractors and blades were known to help clean the streets of the small towns so the school bus with team and cheerleaders and the fans following could get out of town and on to the “Big Game”.

That was a time when weather did not influence or stop the plans of those addicted basketball fans, but most of us are not that driven in our plans and an miserable day weather wise really affects what we want to do and what we will do. I feel that genuine wisdom is on the side of letting the weather influence what you do and where you go.

God has sent His people such a spiritual and emotional forecaster and we know Him as the Holy Spirit. My encouragement is to listen carefully to what the Spirit says to you. God inside of you is a great advantage in your life—listen to all He says.

Be blessed,

Chaplain Tom
