April 2024

Note From Carrie

Director of Resident Experience, Carrie Brindley

April is National Volunteer Appreciation Month. This provides the opportunity to celebrate the impact of volunteer service and the power of volunteers to make a difference and be a force that transforms the world. During this month, Fellowship Square Surprise would like to formally recognize the extraordinary volunteers who dedicate their time, talent, voice and resources to meet the needs of their fellow residents and community. We rely greatly on resident volunteers. Our volunteers support the community in various ways, from helping in the office with deliveries, organizing and working in the gift shop, tending to the library, to assisting with Chaplain needs each week. Today and every day, we appreciate our dedicated volunteers at Fellowship Square Surprise. They bring their own special skill sets and motivations for supporting our mission. Each one of our amazing volunteers genuinely gives a piece of their heart to positively impact the life of others. We couldn't do the good work we do without them, and for that we are forever grateful! Please join us in expressing our gratitude to the wonderful men and women who have reached out their hands to make the lives of others brighter.

~ Carrie

Chaplain Chats ~ Campus Chaplain, Dan Brookey

Adventure! Just the sound of the word desires movement. Hearing the word makes me want to get out of my chair and do something or go somewhere. At minimum it makes me think about the places I have been and the things I have seen. Unless, of course, it is applied against an antiquated meaning which includes the words peril, danger or risk. I enjoy new adventures. For some, that would be the reason to go on an adventure. As you ruminate on an exciting or very unusual experience in your life you are contemplating an adventure you had in your life. Actually, life can be viewed as an adventure. Each of you have had a meaningful and unique adventure. The stories I have heard telling of the places you have gone and things you have accomplished is just short of incredible. In some cases, they seem like miracles. Your adventures are, in part, what makes my ministry so enjoyable. For that, I thank you. When I think of all the adventures in the Bible, yes the peril and risk as well as the lofty miracles, two words have really captured my thoughts. These two words were spoken by God himself. "Follow Me". Simon and Andrew were out fishing one day and they had just casted their nets when Jesus appears and says "Follow Me" (Mark 1:17). They didn't ask any questions, had no second thoughts or have any expectations or reservations. They didn't ask to see Jesus' business plan or ask to see the financials. They didn't even want to know what this adventure entailed or what it would cost them. Scripture says, "at once they left their nets and followed him." (Mark 1:18). The Gospels in the New Testament, in part, describes the next three years of adventure and ministry. This led up to Easter Sunday which was just a few days ago. I trust you celebrated resurrection Sunday in a fashionable and spiritual way. We are also aware of the days preceding resurrection. This, of course, includes Good Friday when Jesus went to the cross for our salvation. Jesus predicted his death and resurrection in Luke 9. He goes on to say "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me" (Luke 9:23). Your life is an adventure and according to scripture, God doesn't shy away from inviting you into a marvelous adventure to follow him.

Blessings, Chaplain Dan
