Note From Jacque

Director of Resident Services, Jacque Reynolds

Happy New Year Everyone! I wanted to share with you all a wonderful scripture– Isaiah 43:19- "Behold, I am doing a new thing– now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." It can be easy to wonder when all of the effects of Covid and the world's tumultuous times will come to an end– and it can be so discouraging… and then I read one of God's faithful promises. I am reminded that He continues to bring newness, and a refreshing no matter the situation and season. But am I aware of it? Am I looking for the blessings or just the curses? Do I understand that even in the mysteries and unknown, the Lord is making a way, His way, in all of these things…in the storms, He provides shelter. In the desert and dry seasons, He provides refreshment and sustenance for my soul. I only need to look to Him for my hope, refuge, and peace. He will not only sustain, but he will cause me and those around me to grow and flourish. I pray for each and every one of you– that you find yourselves overwhelmed with JOY, PEACE, and HOPE….in the middle of the mystery, a new hope would arise within you! Happy New Year– Jacque Reynolds

Chaplain Chats ~
Campus Chaplain, Dan Brookey

Once again we enter into a new year. A time to wish everyone "Happy New Year!" I trust this saying has specific meaning for those saying it and those receiving it. Happiness gives us pleasure or contentment. Each New Year we express the thought that we do not just turn the page on the calendar but get a brand new one. Each year for the past five years I have created a calendar with photos. The photos represent the fun times in the previous year we have had with our children and grandchildren. It is fun to turn the page every month and look back on the previous year. But once the page is turned there also lies the blank squares representing each new day of the month. Filling those squares with as many moments of happiness as possible shows us how we can move through the New Year with high expectations. Opportunities are endless and life experiences, friendships and fun activities unfold. The months hold many special services throughout the year as well. In fact, the third Sunday in January is World Religion Day. The day celebrates the commonality of the major faiths of the world. It may surprise you to know that there are over 4,000 recognized religions in the world. According to an online article from nationaldaycalander.com, religion shape a person's morals, ethics, customs, and ultimately shapes their behavior. This article says that belief in God, or a higher power, helps them through difficult situations. Having a religion also gives them peace about what happens after they die. To place our faith and the days on the calendar into perspective so they align can be conceived in part by what the Christian Bible says in Ecclesiastes 3:11 "He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end." Since we are created in the image of God we have a spiritual thirst, we have eternal value, and nothing but the eternal God can truly satisfy us. King Solomon, at the beginning of Ecclesiastes 3 says "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens." As you contemplate this New Year and set out to conquer 2023 one day at a time, may you capture the blessings of God along the way. Happy New Year!
