Adventures in Art

The Curious Case of the Missing Man

How often are we truly present in life? We expect people to show up—a bride at the altar, a parent at birth, a driver on a bus. When they're missing, it becomes a case to solve—like a vanished figure in art.

Monday, October 6th

10:30am | V2GR

Annie's Eye Talk

Wear your hearing aids. I get mine checked and cleaned often. You don't hear with your ears, you hear with your brain. Conditioning the auditory cortex keeps these pathways open. When you can't see, you better be able to hear!

Arizona Tales

Volcanoes in Arizona?

Yes, we have several volcanoes and volcanic fields!

OCTOBER MOVIES!

ALL MOVIES SHOWN IN THE V2GR

OCTOBER SKY

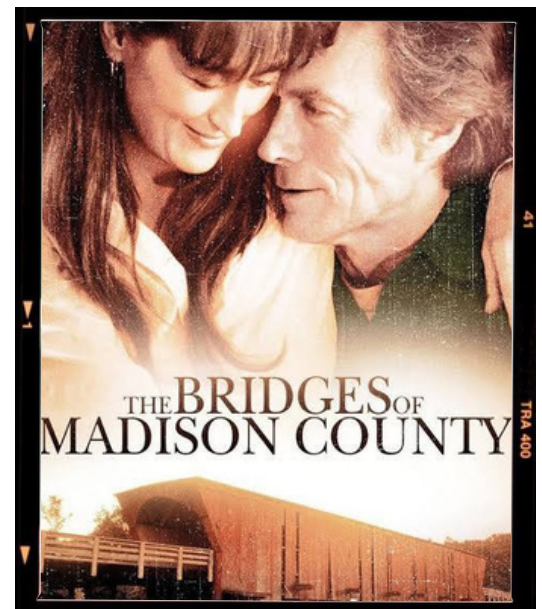

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4TH | 1:00 PM

John Hickam (Chris Cooper) is a West Virginia coal miner who loves his job and expects his sons, Jim (Scott Miles) and Homer (Jake Gyllenhaal), to follow in his footsteps. But Jim gets a football scholarship, and Homer becomes interested in rocket science after seeing Sputnik 1 crossing the sky. John disapproves of his son's new mania, but Homer begins building rockets with the help of friends and a sympathetic teacher (Laura Dern). Rocketry, he hopes, will prove to be his ticket to a better life.

THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY

MONDAY, OCTOBER 27TH | 2:00 PM

A moving love story about a photographer (Clint Eastwood) on assignment to shoot the historic bridges of Madison County. He meets a housewife (Meryl Streep), whose husband and children are away on a trip. The film traces a brief affair that is never sordid, but instead one of two soul mates who have met too late.
