Minimize Your Taxes, Maximize Your Impact.

You have a choice: send your tax money to the IRS, or redirect it to a cause that you care about. Even if you take the standard deduction, you can still benefit.

70½ or older? Giving directly from your IRA, which hasn't yet been taxed, can reduce your taxable income.

Alternatively, donate appreciated stocks and avoid paying capital gains tax.

Instead of giving money to the government, support a mission close to your heart and make a positive impact— that's smart generosity.
