PHONE DIRECTORY 15-16

Dear Residents,
Reflecting on the events of April, I am truly grateful for the dedication and enthusiasm each of you brings to our community. The Easter festivities, Legacy and Light event, and volunteer celebration showcased the spirit of togetherness and unity that defines us. Looking ahead to May, I am thrilled for the upcoming Cinco de Mayo celebration and the special spa treat planned for the wonderful mothers in our community. Your participation and support make these events truly special, and I eagerly anticipate everyone coming together once again.

As we transition into the summer months, I understand that some of you may be planning vacations. Please take care, and know that you will be missed. Your presence is valued and appreciated, and I eagerly await your return. I am excited to see what the summer holds for us here at Fellowship Square.

Let's continue to have fun and create memorable experiences together. Your ideas are always welcome as this is your community, and we value your input.

Warm regards and heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you.

Always, Jenni

Dan Brookey Chaplain

Hebrews 13:5

“I will never leave you nor forsake you”.

Many times, in our lives we have ceremonies and special occasions where someone isn't present. Typically, this isn't just someone but a special loved one or prominent person in history. When my nephew was married his mother and sister were already with the Lord. Two chairs that day sat empty with only a photo in the special seat. I am also reminded of the Seder service we had this year at Passover where one chair was left to honor the life of the Prophet Elijah. You may have an empty chair at your house. May I remind you that our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is always there, willing to fill the empty spaces. Invite Christ into your empty chair and the place in your heart that longs to be filled. Jesus said in Hebrews 13:5 “I will never leave you nor forsake you”. This promise assures those who believe in God that he is constant, present, and always there supporting us. This promise means God will not abandon you, regardless of the difficult circumstances or how lonely life might feel. Keep the faith and allow God to be your ever present help in trouble and the confidant you can always rely on. May God continue to be your stronghold.

In Christ, Chaplain Dan

Health & Wellness Newsletter

God's richest blessings to you! We may have stress related to uncertainties or problems in relationships, spiritual well being of loved ones, finances and health. God's word reminds us, "You will keep in perfect peace him whose mind is steadfast, because he trusts in You". Stress refers to physical, psychological and spiritual responses to demands. It isn't the demands themselves, as much as "believing in one way and living in another". Stress isn't the distance we pedal as much as it is the distance between what we value and what we do. When the people and activities that are important to us receive little of our time or energy...we feel stressed! Our faith can help us to creatively live with our values, rather than in opposition to them. This perspective may explain why persons with terminal illness can live with more joy and peace while facing major losses. We can live lives characterized by more peace and wholeness and less stress by: Renewing yourself and feeding your spirit with God's word. Embracing the present. Avoid obsessing about what needs to be done next learn from what went wrong yesterday, so you can fully appreciate God's presence next to you. Live with hope and joy. See God as active in our lives. Live a grateful life. Thankfulness breeds contentment.

Stand like a mountain.. flow like a river. Use God's perspective in judging situations requiring strength or riding the waves of change.
