ROMANCING THE STONE

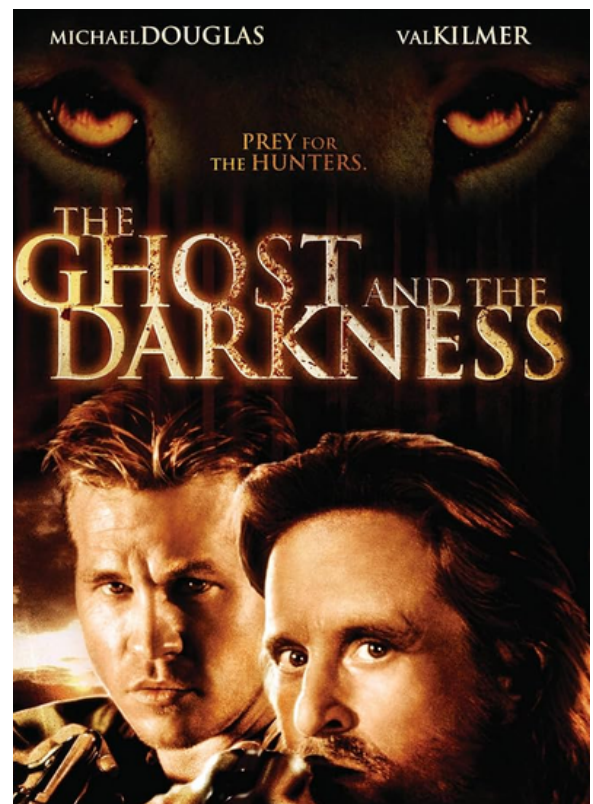

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5TH 1:00 PM

Romancing the Stone (1984) follows a shy romance novelist whose rescue mission in Colombia turns into a perilous trek through jungles, treasure hunts and danger, alongside a brash adventurer. Blending action, comedy, and romance, Robert Zemeckis crafts a spirited, fast-paced romp with vibrant settings and strong chemistry between Kathleen Turner and Michael Douglas. Critics praise its charm and adventure, making it a delightful, rewatchable classic worth seeing.

THE GHOST AND THE DARKNESS

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14TH 2:30PM

Set in Kenya in 1898, The Ghost and the Darkness tells the thrilling story of two man-eating lions that terrorize workers building the Uganda Railway. Engineer John Patterson is called upon to stop the lions, leading to a dangerous battle against the powerful predators. The film stars Val Kilmer and Michael Douglas, directed by Stephen Hopkins and written by William Goldman. Based on the infamous Tsavo events, the movie combines history, adventure, and suspense.
